

“If anyone is thirsty,
let them come to Me and drink.”
John 7:37b

overview

A place for rest and renewal, a place to connect with the Spirit in the beauty of God’s creation.

A cozy cabin, tucked in the beautiful Clearwater forest away from noise and distraction, the hermitage is intended for year around solo retreats and offers a serene setting for solitude and renewal. The cabin features a comfortable sitting/reading area with gas stove, a desk for study and writing, a large picture window and screened porch offering views of the lake, surrounding forest and the many creatures that inhabit it.
